Privacy Policy

Kirsty Antrobus Photography will only ever use images on their website and social media with the express permission of the people in the image. If the image is of anyone under the age of 18 permission will be sought from the parent/ guardian who booked the photo session. Permission is sought by either email, SMS or WhatsApp. All images used for advertising/ publishing purposes will be watermarked and in a lower resolution than those available within your package.

We will retain your contact details which may include name, contact telephone number and address, to advise when your private gallery is available for viewing. All galleries are password protected. The link to the gallery will be emailed direct to the client. The password will be issued to the client separate to the gallery link either by SMS/WhatsApp or email. It is up to the client to share this with friends or family at their own discretion.

Images will be downloaded to editing software, Lightroom and Photoshop and will be professionally edited by the photographer, Kirsty Antrobus, prior to uploading to the website. These images are stored on the website and a higher resolution will be stored on a back up hard drive.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), Kirsty Antrobus Photography is the Data Controller and the lawful bases we rely on for processing this information are as follows:

i) We have a contractual obligation to provide you with the photography services you have requested.

ii) Your consent/permission for images used on the website and social media

Your information is securely stored on the website, hosted by Zenfolio.

We keep your name, email, phone number and address for the period of time your images are available to purchase through www.KirstyAntrobusPhotography.co.uk for up to 5 years. We will then dispose your information by deleting this from both the website and back up hard drive.

Kirsty Antrobus Photography reserves the right to amend the viewing platform of your images (providing these remain password protected). All images are owned by Kirsty Antrobus Photography.

You as the client have the right to purchase images, either by download or via print. Printing and framing is coordinated through Zenfolio with their third party suppliers. We will only ever share your personal information (name, address and images) with this third party supplier if you, the client, or you request us, the photographer, to place an order for any item that is not a download (i.e. prints/ wall art) to ensure delivery of your order is direct to you, the client. We use Paypal for photography services https://www.paypal.com/uk/webapps/mpp/ua/privacy-full and Zenfolio for payment of products. https://zenfolio.com/privacypolicy
